One Day Workshop at NHC- M

Pedagogy of teaching skills at UG level and a Roadmap to research techniques

Pedagogy of teaching skills at UG level and a Roadmap to research techniques was the topic of the one day workshop organized by NHC, Marathalli campus on the 30th of October 2014, which was a huge success.

There were 55 external registrations other than 40 in house participation from principals and faculties of various reputed colleges and management institutions of the city like St. John's College, Christ University, Silicon City, Hindustan Academy, Bishop Cotton Christian Women College to name a few. The program was meticulously organized by the department under the guidance of the Principal Dr. R. Bodhisatvan and equal support from the H o D Dr. K. Purushothaman. The keynote address was delivered by Dr. R. Senthil Kumaran, principal counselor CII Institute of Quality in Education where he clearly pointed out that Faculty is the Mantra for quality improvement and excellence in HEI's. He said faculty quality is measured based on teaching, scholarly activities and professional responsibilities.

The first speaker Dr. Rajdeep Manwani spoke eloquently on the 3 C's of teaching- craftsmanship, creativity and concern for students. He requested all teachers present to do a small new thing every day to become a better teacher.

The Second Speaker Dr. R. Karnumurthy addressed the participants on the most appropriate aspect of research techniques speaking technically on identification of research problem, research methodologies, hypothesis, analysis and interpretation & documentation. The workshop was perfectly timed with a sumptuous lunch between the sessions and concluded with the summing up of the proceedings of the day. The event co-ordinator Mrs. Amita Agarwal proposed vote of thanks and the day ended with the National Anthem.
