6.5 Training and Pre-placement Facility

The Dean of corporate relations will organize, from time to time, placement training programme to help orient the students on all placement activities like interviews, tests, development of soft skills associated with placement and personality development. This is an in-house service provided for our students who are expected to apply their minds effectively to these career-oriented tasks so that they can meet the corporate expectations successfully.

These training programmes are scheduled outside the academic curriculum to focus and improve on self-development techniques like soft skills, leadership building exercises, group activities / group discussions, aptitudes and technical skills.

All pre-placement training programmes for NHC students start from the beginning of fifth semester, so that the students are ready for campus interviews from the fifth/sixth semester onwards.

Eligibility for placement

All Students are required to attain and maintain a high level of academic performance with not less than 60% aggregate marks right from I Semester without any backlog and 85% aggregate attendance in aptitude, soft skills and technical training sessions.

6.6 Banking Facility

In order to provide for easy banking to students and staff, a branch of Indian Bank has been established in the Campus for operating a bank account, payment of fees and for associated activities. The NHC Extension Counter offers core banking facilities to its customers. An added Advantage is the availability of an ATM facility at the bank.

6.7 Health care & Medical Facilities

Student may avail Medical support, consultation services round the clock at the Medical centre situated in the college premises.

6.8 Physical Instruction

The students physical fitness is given due regard by the physical instruction Director, who taken responsibility of Organising sporting events, running of the gymnasium, issue and receipt of sports from the students.

REPORT ON DRAMA PLAY TO SPREAD AWARENESS

Dated: 4th May, 2018

Venue: Chanakya Seminar Hall

Time: 1.30 pm – 3.30 pm

A play was enacted by the members of the anti-sexual harassment cell for the student of the college to spread awareness about sexual harassment. Lithin Thankachan of 2nd Year BBA was the student coordinator who directed and made the play successful. Students from different classes were called up. The play contained scenes that showed types of sexual torment that people of different gender and age face. It helped the student to become cautious and protect their friends and themselves from such crimes.

It explained the mental, emotional and physical trauma that a person goes through when he/she is sexually harassed. "WE STAND TOGETHER FOR EACH OTHER" was the message with which the play ended. Mrs. Greeshma Francis, HOD concluded the program with her thanks and also a request to the students to be aware and to fight sexual harassment of any sort. The play left a good impact by making the students is wary of sexual molestation.
