Report on “Aptitude and Logical Reasoning Training”

Session Duration: 6 hours

Time: From 9am to 3pm

Date : 24th and 25th January, 2020

Venue : C-104 and C-103

Title of the Training : Aptitude and Logical Reasoning (Revision)

Target Audience : Students of VI semester-BCA, BBA and B.Com.

Participant Strength : 120

Faculty in-charge : Ms. Ruchi Vohra

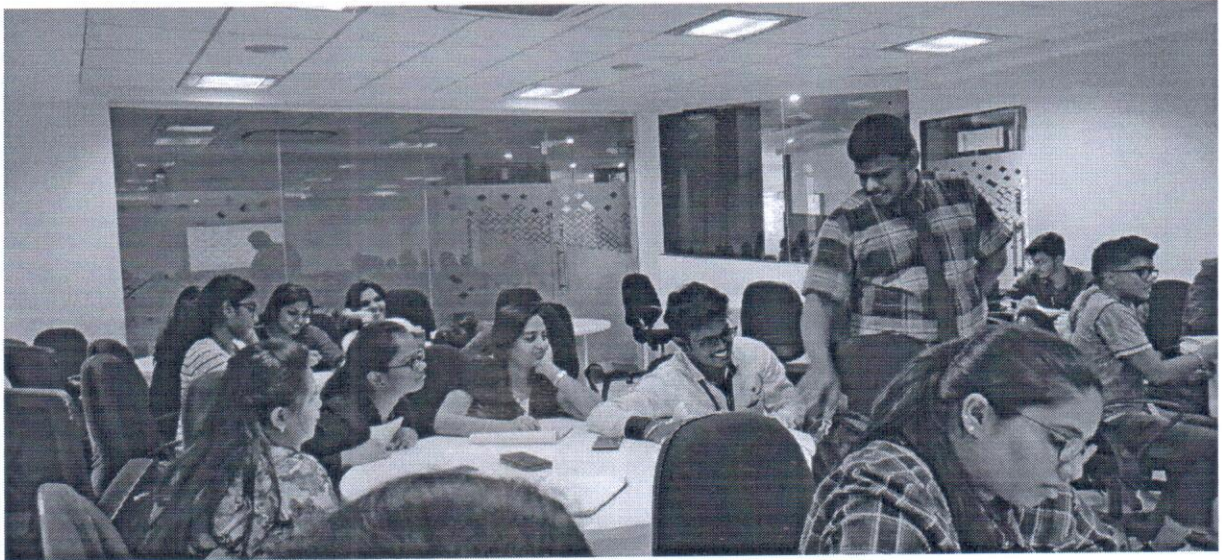

A two-day workshop was organised by the placement department for sixth semester students of BCA, BBA and B.Com. In-house trainers Mr. Bharath Kumar and Mr. Karthik were the resource persons. The workshop was aimed to enhance and revise the concepts of “Aptitude and Logical Reasoning”. The objective of the workshop was to revise the concepts of aptitude and logical reasoning so as to make them ready for coming placement drives.

During the course of workshop, the students were given an open platform to pose their queries regarding the type of quantitative aptitude based questions asked in the various tests or exams conducted by the companies while looking for placements. The students gained a knowledgeable perspective towards targeting these examinations with the right kind of preparation and training.

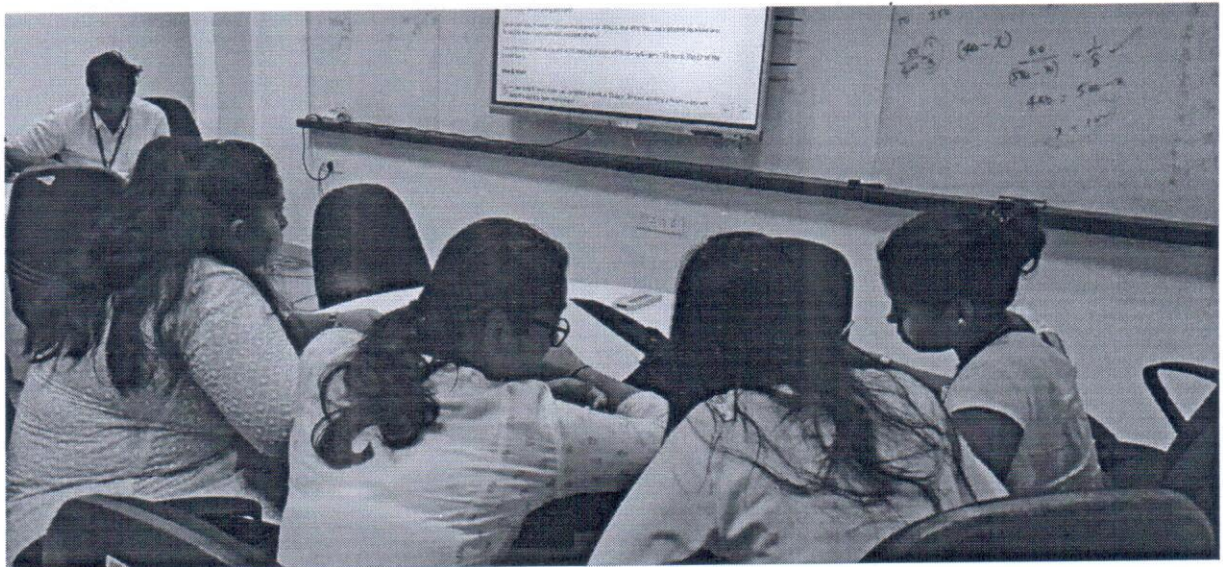

The students were then engaged in solving an aptitude-based question paper comprising two broad categories to analyze and test their respective knowledge and ability. This workshop was significant in rendering a sense of encouragement amongst the students to wear a thinking cap, at all times.

Report on Outreach Program to Government School

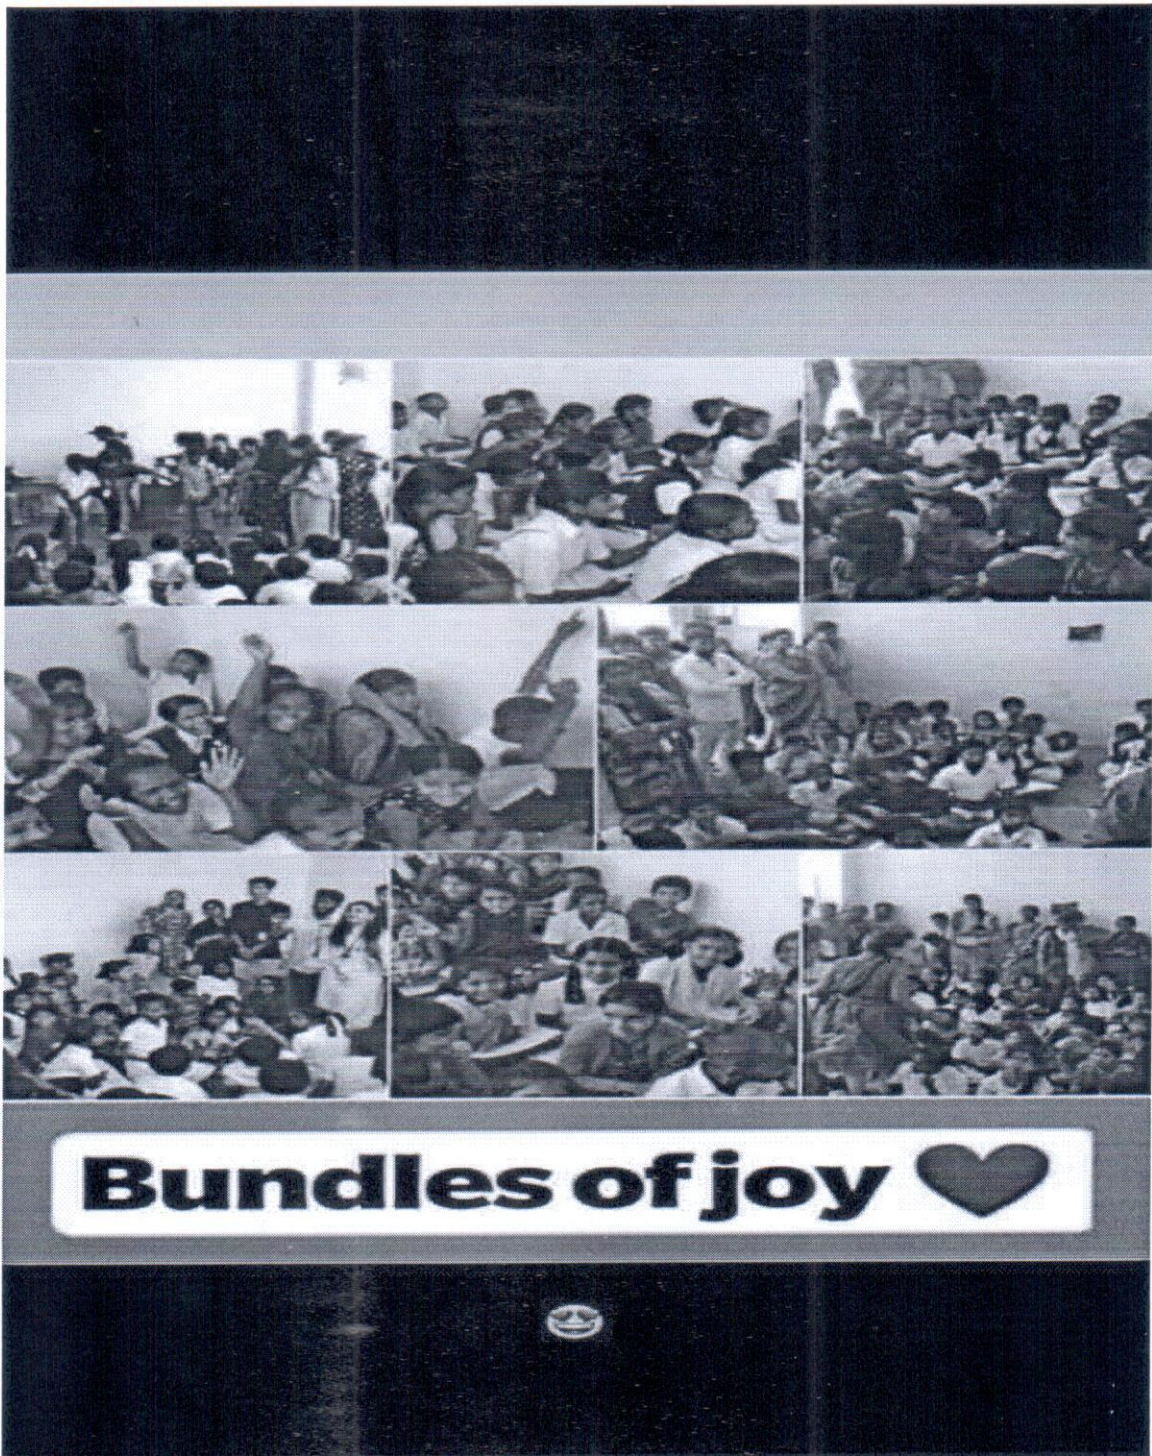

The students from VI B.Com P&G devoted a few hours of an outreach activity to a Government School at Kannamangala, Bangalore on 30th March, 2019. The program aimed to instill the importance of cultivating an awareness of human circumstances and differences that extend beyond the students' classroom experiences. Students need to develop sensitivity to others needs and cultures and become aware of and appreciate the differences that exist amongst us as a community. The VI B. Com P&G students left at 10.00 am from the college premises and reached at 11.30 to the government school. The school children were very enthusiastic and participated in the cultural events and current affairs quiz conducted by the final year students. The class also conducted skits and awareness program on basic hygiene, importance of education, dangers and distractions from mobiles, traffic safety rules and save environment awareness. At the end we gave away stationery needs and refreshments to the children. It was a wonderful opportunity given to us and we thank God Almighty for it. Our sincere regards to the Management, Principal and Staff of New Horizon College, Marathalli for the support and guidance and wait for more doors of opportunity in the near future.
