Title of the Event : A visit to Janapada Loka
Target Audience : V Sem BCom 'A' & 'B' Section 120 students
Venue : Janapada Loka, Ramanagara dist., Karnataka
Organized by : Outreach club
Faculty Coordinator: Ms. Eshwari
Student Coordinators: Dhanush

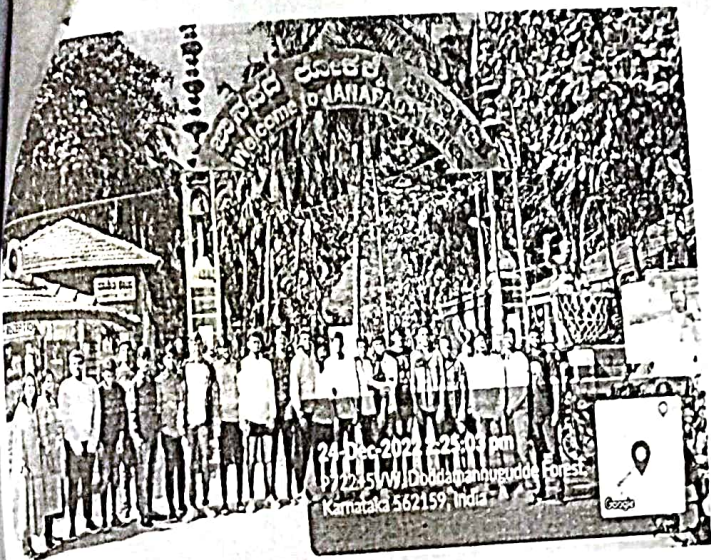

Introduction: A batch of 5th semester 'A' & 'B' Sec students of BCom with faculty Ms. Shwini Shedthi and Ms. Madhushree.P visited Janapadaloka at Ramanagara district, Karnataka. This visit was mainly focused on to understand the rural lifestyle and folk culture.

About Janapada Loka:

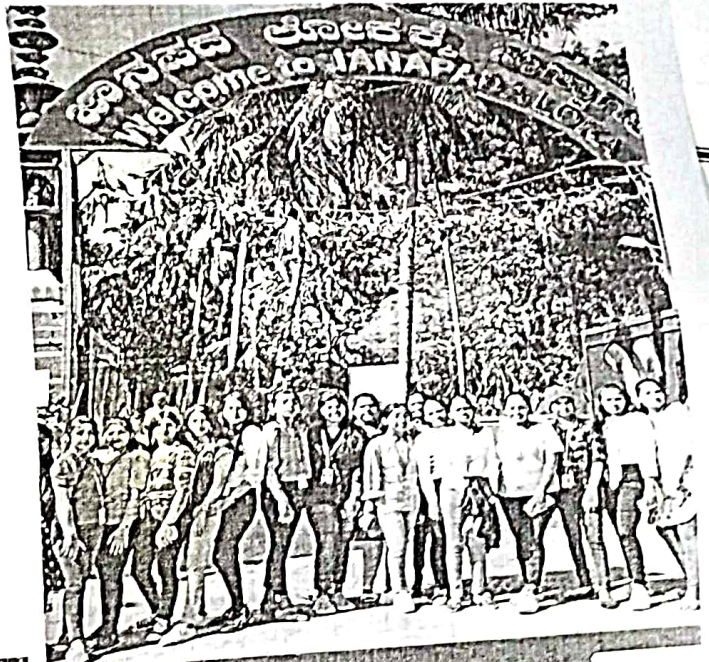

Considered one of the prominent cultural hubs of India, the Janapada Loka Ramanagara museum was constructed by Sri H. L. Nage Gowda, a prominent civil servant of Karnataka. Mr. Gowda was an enthusiast and quiet attached to the rural and traditional culture of the state of Karnataka. It pained him to see that many of the traditional ways of living and working were slowly becoming extinct. As the modern amenities were slowly adapted in all spheres of life. He created this museum to depict how the rural life looked like 3-4 generations back to a century back. And for creating this museum, he and his friends collected artefacts for over three decades. Beautiful life-like models are used all through the various parts of the museum to depict old rural life of Karnataka. Moreover, the museum is a complete open-air museum in the middle of lush greenery.

Outcome of the visit:

The visit was useful for the students to understand the exclusive folk culture and made everyone to reminisce the art, dance, lifestyle and artifacts of our culture.
