About the Event/Session:

The event Movie Day: Business Edition was organised by the students of 3rd B.Com 'C' to provide an engaging and educational experience by screening the movie The Intern (2015). This film highlighted lessons in teamwork, leadership, and adaptability. The goal was to combine learning with entertainment, allowing students to understand professional and business ethics through cinema. There were 200 participants who enjoyed the entire movie and participated in the quiz rounds conducted during the screening.

To make the session interactive, movie quiz rounds were conducted with goodies as prizes, and snacks were served during the interval. The core committee head Ms. Baba and team members Mahesh Patel and Sravanthi ensured the complete execution of the event.

The committee received positive feedback and ensured participant satisfaction, contributing to the success of the event. Snack stalls and hydration points were organised, garbage bags were pinned for waste disposal, and the hall was restored within the time limit—keeping the event

On schedule.

The team worked efficiently under time pressure and ensured smooth coordination between committees.

Overall, the event successfully balanced fun and learning while encouraging teamwork and enthusiasm among students.
