Title of the Event: B.Com Induction Programme - Programme & Curriculum Overview

Target Audience: B.Com 1st Semester Students - 2026

No. of Participants: 180 students

Venue: Chanakya Seminar Hall, Amar Hemu Kalani Block

Resource Person: Ms. Kampa Belliappa, HoD of Commerce

Organised by: Department of Commerce

Faculty Coordinator: Ms. Poornima HK

The Induction Programme for the first-year B.Com students was successfully conducted to familiarise them with the academic environment and institutional practices. The programme was inaugurated by Ms. Kampa Belliappa, Head of the Department of Commerce, who warmly welcomed the students and encouraged them to make the best use of the opportunities available during their academic journey.

The Head of Department addressed the students on various academic aspects, including the curriculum structure, examination pattern, attendance requirements, internal assessment process, code of conduct, and the importance of discipline and regular participation in classroom activities. Students were also informed about value-added courses, co-curricular activities, skill development programmes, internships, and placement opportunities offered by the department.

Outcome of the Session

The session was interactive, and the students were able to connect to the real-time situation and the discipline to be incorporated.
