Introduction

The Department of Commerce and Management organised the M.Com Graduation Day – 2024-2026 Batch on 25th August 2026 at the Chanakya Seminar Hall, Amar Hemu Kalani Block. The programme was scheduled from 11:00 a.m. to 1:15 p.m. and was organised to commemorate the successful completion of the postgraduate programme and recognise the academic accomplishments of the graduating students.

The Graduation Day served as a significant occasion for the students, faculty members, and parents to come together and celebrate an important milestone in the academic journey of the M.Com 2024-2026 Batch. The ceremony acknowledged the students' commitment to their studies and marked the transition from their academic life towards new professional and personal opportunities.

Inaugural Proceedings

The programme was emceed by Ms. Ronicca MS, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce and Management, who coordinated the proceedings and introduced the various segments of the ceremony.

The ceremony commenced with an Invocation Dance presented by the students. The performance marked the beginning of the formal proceedings and was followed by the Lighting of the Lamp, signifying knowledge, learning, and enlightenment.

The Welcome Address was delivered as part of the formal proceedings, setting the context for the Graduation Day and highlighting the importance of the occasion. The gathering was then taken through 'Down the Memory Lane,' a presentation that revisited significant moments and experiences from the academic journey of this batch.

Down the Memory Lane and Student Reflections

The 'Down the Memory Lane' segment provided an opportunity to recall the students' academic journey and the memorable experiences associated with their time in the institution.

The presentation captured the essence of their journey and reflected the experiences shared by the batch during their postgraduate programme.

The programme was further enriched by students sharing their experiences and reflections. The graduating students spoke about their academic journey, memorable moments, learning experiences, and the relationships they developed during their time in the institution.

The sharing of experiences added a personal dimension to the ceremony and provided an opportunity for the graduating students to reflect upon their growth and the memories they would carry forward.

Address by the Principal

The Principal, Dr. Bodhistavan, addressed the gathering and shared his words of guidance and encouragement with the graduating students. His address highlighted the importance of the milestone and encouraged the students as they prepare to move forward into the next phase of their lives.

The Principal's Address provided the graduates with valuable guidance as they transition from academic life to their future professional endeavours.

Awarding of Certificates

The Awarding of Certificates was a significant segment of the Graduation Day. The certificates were presented to the graduating students by the Principal, Dr. Bodhistavan, the Head of the Department of Commerce, and the Head of the Department of Management, in recognition of their successful completion of the M.Com programme.

The certificate distribution marked an important milestone in the academic journey of the graduates and was a moment of pride and accomplishment for the students, their parents, faculty members, and the institution.

Graduation Pledge

Following the certificate distribution, the students participated in the Graduation Pledge. The pledge was administered by the Principal, Dr. Bodhistavan, and served as a formal affirmation of the students' commitment to professional responsibility, integrity, and ethical conduct as they proceed towards their future careers.

The ceremony provided a meaningful conclusion to the academic recognition of the graduates and reinforced the values expected of them as they enter their respective professional fields.

Vote of Thanks and National Anthem

The formal proceedings concluded with the Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the Management, Principal, Head of the Department, faculty members, parents, students, and all those who contributed to the successful organisation of the Graduation Day.

The formal ceremony concluded with the National Anthem, bringing the proceedings to a dignified close.

Group Photograph and Lunch

Following the formal ceremony, the graduating students assembled at the Quadrangle for the group photograph. The photograph provided an opportunity to capture a lasting memory of the Graduation Day and the M.Com 2024-2026 Batch.

The programme concluded with lunch, bringing together the graduates, faculty members, and family members.

Conclusion

The M.Com Graduation Day – 2024-2026 Batch was a significant academic occasion that recognised the successful completion and achievements of the graduating students. The ceremony provided a fitting platform to acknowledge their academic journey, celebrate their accomplishments, and reflect upon the experiences that shaped their time in the institution.

The event also marked the beginning of a new phase for the graduates as they move forward towards their professional and personal aspirations. The Graduation Day concluded on a positive and memorable note, leaving the graduating students with a sense of achievement and anticipation for the opportunities that lie ahead.
