Introduction:

The Anti-Ragging Cell, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organised a seminar titled “Legal Awareness and Student Responsibility: Understanding UGC Regulations with Respect to Anti-Ragging” on 28th September 2026 at the college auditorium. The seminar was organised for first-year students of B.Com, BBA, and BCA with the objective of creating awareness about ragging, its legal implications and the importance of maintaining a safe, inclusive and respectful campus environment.

The session was led by Ms. Premashree A, Advocate, VGB Associate, Bengaluru, who addressed the students on the legal provisions relating to ragging, the UGC Anti-Ragging Regulations and the responsibilities of students in preventing ragging within educational institutions.

Key Areas Covered

1. Meaning and Types of Ragging: Understanding ragging, its different forms and its adverse effects on students and the campus community.
2. UGC Anti-Ragging Regulations: Awareness of the regulations and the institution's anti-ragging policies.
3. Legal and Disciplinary Consequences: Understanding the legal provisions and disciplinary action applicable to ragging.

4. Student Rights and Responsibilities: Highlighting the role of students in promoting mutual respect, dignity, equality and a ragging-free learning environment.
5. Reporting Mechanisms and Support Services: Familiarising students with the Anti-Ragging Cell, reporting procedures and available student support services.

Outcome

The seminar was intended to strengthen students' awareness of the ill effects of ragging, the applicable UGC regulations, and the legal and disciplinary consequences of engaging in ragging. It also emphasised the importance of student participation in creating a safe, supportive and ragging-free campus.

Conclusion

The seminar served as an important awareness initiative for first-year students, highlighting the significance of legal awareness, responsible behaviour and mutual respect in higher education. It reinforced the role of every student in upholding institutional values and contributing to a safe and inclusive campus.
